Collection Agency Licensing Instructions & Application

The Colorado Fair Debt Collection Practices Act ("CFDCPA") regulates debt collection in the State of Colorado and is enforced by the Administrator of the Colorado Fair Debt Collection Practices Act ("Administrator"). It requires collection agencies to obtain a license prior to soliciting clients or collecting debts in Colorado.

The CFDCPA applies to the following collection agencies or debt collectors:

- (1) Located within this state;
- (2) Outside this state and collects or attempts to collect from consumers who reside within this state for a creditor with a place of business located within this state;
- (3) Outside this state and regularly collects or attempts to collect from consumers who reside within this state for a creditor with a place of business located outside this state; or
- (4) Outside this state and solicits or attempts to solicit debts for collection from a creditor with a place of business located within this state;
- (5) Debt/judgment buyers who are now the owners of debts that were in default at the time they acquired ownership of those debts;
- (6) Creditors that collect their own debts using another name which would indicate that a third person is collecting or attempting to collect such debts.

Attorneys engaged in debt collections do not need a collection agency license but must comply with the substantive provisions of the CFDCPA and are subject to the Administrator's enforcement authority.

Collection agencies that collect only commercial, business, investment, and agricultural purpose debts are not subject to the CFDCPA and do not need a collection agency license.

Creditors, defined in section 12-14-103 (5), C.R.S., who collect their own debts in their own name are not subject to the law and do not need to be licensed.

Principal Place of Business & Branch Office. Only the principal place of business must be licensed. This may be the agency's headquarters or the primary location for collection activity. If your collection agency has branch offices, their addresses and telephone numbers must be reported at the time of application or no later than thirty (30) days after the branch office commences business. This is a continuing obligation.

Colorado Office. Every licensee must maintain a Colorado office open to the public during normal business hours, staffed by at least one full-time employee, with access to consumer payment records, client accounts records, and which accepts consumer payments physically made at that location. This need not be a "working office" with debt collectors, solicitors, or a collections manager, and it may be shared with other businesses if all signs and directories are clearly marked and you are able to receive mail at this location.

Bond Requirement

Every collection agency, with the exception of debt/judgment buyers, must submit a bond with its license application. The minimum bond amount requirement is $12,000.00 and the maximum bond amount is $20,000.00. You may submit a cash bond or a surety bond. A surety bond form is included in the license application packet. For detailed information in calculating your bond amount, please see CFDPA section 12-14-124 (1).

Financial Statement

Provide a verified financial statement for the previous year. Your financial statement must provide information of all your agency's assets, liabilities and net worth. Your assets must include the amount of $2,500.00 deposited in the Trust Account. See CFDCPA section 12-14-123 (1)(a), and Rule 3.01 (4), Rules of the Administrator.

Bank Account Information

Every collection agency, except debt buyers & those that do not receive consumer payments, must maintain a Trust Account for the benefit of its clients and must contain, at all times, sufficient funds due and owing to its clients. The trust account must be maintained in a commercial bank, industrial bank or savings and loan association. This bank account must be clearly designated as a trust account and must not be used as an operating account. If the trust account(s) are maintained in bank(s) outside of Colorado, your collection agency must execute and file an annual written authorization with the Administrator that your trust account(s) may be attached upon order of a Colorado court.

Debt Collectors and Solicitors

Provide a list of all currently employed debt collectors and solicitors. Debt collectors may only use one alias consisting of both a first and last name, not "Mr. Jones," for example, and collectors may not share the same alias. The CFDCPA prohibits a collection agency from hiring a debt collector or solicitor who has been convicted of a financial crime. See § 12-14-123(2), C.R.S.

Collections Manager

Each collection agency must employ a Colorado approved collections manager to supervise debt collectors and be responsible for compliance with the CFDCPA. The collections manager may be an owner, partner, corporate officer, or other person. Previously approved individuals must still complete the enclosed collections manager application.

Approval of a collections manager is based on the applicant's minimum experience required in CFDCPA section 12-14-119 (1)(a) and the absence of conviction of a financial crime. The Administrator has the authority to conduct an investigation to determine an applicant's qualifications.

Colorado Specific Provisions

The following are specific provisions under Colorado Fair Debt Collection Practices Act ("CFDCPA") not found in the Federal Fair Debt Collection Practices Act:

1. The first written notice must print the following statements:
 - a) "FOR INFORMATION ABOUT THE COLORADO FAIR DEBT COLLECTION PRACTICES ACT, SEE WWW.COAG.GOV/CAR" [or the current website address]. Section 12-14-105 (3)(c), C.R.S.
 - b) "A consumer has the right to request in writing that a debt collector or collection agency cease further communication with the consumer. A written request to cease communication will not prohibit the debt collector or collection agency from taking any other action authorized by law to collect the debt." Section 12-14-105 (3)(e), C.R.S.
 - c) The address and telephone number of the agency's local Colorado office. This requirement also applies to the agency's subsequent written communications to a consumer to collect a debt. Section 12-14-123 (1)(b)(I)(B), C.R.S.
2. "Meaningful disclosure" of a debt collector's identity within 60 seconds of contact with the debtor. Section 12-14-106 (1)(f), C.R.S.
3. Prohibits a collection agency from invoking a cognovit clause (confession of judgment). See section 12-14-128 (2), C.R.S.
4. Liability for harassment of a consumer's employer and family in an invasion of privacy action. Section 12-14-113 (7), C.R.S.
5. Bond requirement (cash or surety bond). Sections 12-14-123 (1)(c) & (d) and 12-14-124, C.R.S.
6. Licensure requirement of collection agencies (Section 12-14-115, C.R.S.).
7. Licenses may be revoked or suspended, letters of admonition may be issued to licensees or fined $1,500 per violation, and certain violations of the CFDCPA are criminal misdemeanors. Section 12-14-129 and 12-14-130 (10)(b), C.R.S. Rules and regulations on standards of behavior may be issued by the Administrator.

8. Debts cannot be reported to consumer reporting agencies and credit bureaus sooner than 30 days after mailing of the initial written notice. This does not apply to check collection or if there is no valid known address for the consumer. Section 12-14-108 (1)(j), C.R.S.
9. Collection agencies are mandated to have a toll-free telephone number. Section 12-14-123 (1)(b)(II), C.R.S.

Copies of the Colorado Fair Debt Collection Practices Act, Colorado Child Support Collection Consumer Protection Act, and Rules of the Administrator are available at www.coag.gov/car. In addition, advisory opinions are posted at the website.

Completing the Application

Before you submit your license application, please consult with the License Application Checklist on the next page to make sure that every required form is completed. Do not leave any required information blank or without a response since this will only delay the processing of your license application.

Submit your license application which must include a $500.00 check payable to the Colorado Fair Debt Collection Practices Act for the investigation fee which is non-refundable. You will be notified of the deficiencies in your application and you will have 90 days to cure those defects or your license application will be considered automatically withdrawn or for denial.

When the investigation and application process are completed, you will be notified to send the new license fee. Once all the fees have been paid, your Colorado collection agency license will be issued.
